WINNER of the Grand Prix (the Golden Sesterce) for Best Documentary at the 1982 Nyon Film Festival, Switzerland.

WINNER of the 1982 Australian Film Award for Best Documentary.

WINNER of the 1982 ATOM Award (from the Australian Teachers of Media Association) for Best Documentary in the Social Sciences.

"Enjoyable as well as very moving ... The skills of experienced film makers are obvious in the strikingly balanced direction, sound track and the film's ability to make a serious subject both revelatory and entertaining."

- The Australian (Sydney)

"A remarkable documentary"

- Courier Mail (Brisbane)

"Beautifully edited ... careful, fast-moving and fascinating ... One of the most complex documentaries I've ever seen."

- Hector Kinloch, Radio 2XX (Canberra)

"Many moments of hilarious humour, embarrassment, tragedy, and hitherto unrecorded history"

- Advertiser (Adelaide)

"Stimulating and interesting ... the film is honest in almost a biblical way"

- Canberra Times

"ANGELS OF WAR should become part of Australian cine history"

- Australian Associated Press

"Vivid recollections of beheadings, floggings, bombings, and ... a conjuring up of the revered 'Fuzzy Wuzzy Angels' who carried the wounded to safety"

- Advertiser (Adelaide)

"If you want to watch some real film, go and see ANGELS OF WAR"

- Canberra Chronicle

"An excellent documentary ... which puts the New Guinea campaign of World War II into a grim, new perspective"

- Sydney Morning Herald
